Dear

Could I ask that you respond to my e-mail of 13.05.2016 as we are in the process of deciding whether a hearing will be required or not. Currently we would have to say that your e-mail will be discounted unless some verification is given.

Kind Regards

Dear

As you are aware if we receive objections in relation to an application we need to hold a hearing. We also need to establish to our satisfaction whether the objections we receive in respect of an individual or their operation are valid especially in light of the allegations being made here. In order to give your objection some merit and to establish whether there is a need for a hearing I would ask that you give me some information about yourself, this information is not given to anyone else and you remain anonymous at all time unless you give your express permission to waive it.

The information I would like you to provide is as follows:

Your full name and address

The period of time that you were employed at the premises giving the from and to dates.

More specific detail of the incidents of this nature, i.e. the amount of times they occurred, whether you reported them to the management and anything else you think is relevant.

Also could you advise if you would attend the hearing once the date is set.

I look forward to hearing from you at your earliest convenience

Kind Regards

Lorraine Neale
