

SUMMER

View 15

WINTER

View 15

VIEW 15 - View from the eastern end of Trosley Country Park on the North Downs Scarp slope. Oaken Wood and the existing quarry are 9km away and cannot be distinguished at this distance.

Existing quarry
(Maximum extent)

Proposed quarry
(Maximum extent)

SUMMER

View 16

Existing quarry
(Maximum extent)

Proposed quarry
(Maximum extent)

WINTER

View 16

VIEW 16 - Taken from White Horse Road, 8km north west of the site. Overlooks agricultural land, sloping down towards the site. Aylesford Print site is just visible as white sections within the middle distance of the photograph. Oaken Wood and Hermitage Quarry are not visible in the long distance from this view.

SUMMER

View 17

WINTER

View 17

VIEW 17 - Taken from the lower slopes of Birling Hill, overlooking the M20, A20 and above Larkfield and Ditton. Aylesford Print site is visible in the middle distance as large white sections, both in summer and winter. The proposed quarry at 7.5km is not visible in the far distance of this view.

SUMMER

View 18

WINTER

View 18

VIEW 18 - View from Blue Bell Hill picnic site off Robin Hood Lane, on the North Downs Scarp slope. Oaken Wood cannot readily be distinguished at the distance of 7km.