Petitions for a referendum on whether Medway Council should have an elected mayor

In accordance with The Local Government Act 2000, electors in Medway can petition the Council to hold a referendum on whether the local authority should have an elected mayor. The council is required to publish the minimum number of signatures of local government electors needed to support a valid petition. The minimum number of signatures required is 9667, which is equal to 5% of the number of local government electors shown in the electoral register on 15 February 2012. This number will determine the validity of petitions presented between 1 April 2012 and 31 March 2013. A new number will be published in February 2013 and if this number is less than 9667, then the new number will apply from the date it is published.
