35. ANNUAL REVIEW

Ms Victoria Barlow, the Museum's Director, presented the Annual Review to the Committee.

Ms Barlow highlighted to the Committee that:

- The Learning Team had run several workshops based on WW1 and WW2 and which related to the artefacts and history of the Queen's Own Royal West Kent Regiment Museum Trust (QORWKRMT) throughout 2017. In total 338 school children engaged specifically with the collection and gallery in formal learning activities since January 2017.
- There had been increased social media presence relating to QORWKRMT after suggestions from this Committee.
- Several items from the collection, such as the Keys to Jerusalem, had been lent to the Tower of David Museum in Jerusalem for a temporary exhibition. This had increased publicity of the QORWKRMT.
- During 2017, 23 items had been donated, accessioned and added to the QORWKRMT collection. Highlights of the newly acquired items were:
  - A Christmas card;
  - Materials from Malta; and
  - A colour sergeant's sash.
- The Collections Development Panel, made up of representatives from across the Museum's departments, met each quarter to assess and decide on items offered for donation. A more sustainable and strategic approach was being undertaken and as such a number of items offered to QORWKRMT were not accepted. This was primarily because the items were already duplicated or did not fit the collecting policy.
- Café Culture sessions have increased in popularity and during 2017 a WW1/QORWKR themed session was run. This session included a talk by the regimental volunteer Mr Steve Finnis.
- Mr Finnis continued to work on the QORWKRMT photographic collection. The information was in the process of being updated by staff and would be uploaded to Adlib (the new collections management system) by the end of 2018.

In response to questions from the Committee, Ms Barlow replied that:

- She would speak to the Learning Team about inviting Veterans to attend sessions with schoolchildren.

- Everything that had been donated to the QORWKRMT in 2017 had been archived.
- Items that had been archived from the collection could be moved into the gallery if other items were placed back into the archives.

The Committee suggested that the collection in the gallery should be changed more frequently and that the profile of the collection be raised in order to attract more visitors and donations.

The Committee requested that an informal meeting be arranged at the Museum to assess whether to place a floor sticker around the collection box and to discuss the collection.

The Committee congratulated Officers on the success of the Café Culture initiative.

RESOLVED: That the annual report be noted.

36. DURATION OF MEETING

10.00 a.m. to 11.02 a.m.

Accounts 2017/18

1. PURPOSE OF REPORT AND EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

- 1.1 Attached at Appendix 1 are the Accounts for the year ending 31st March 2018.
  - 1.2 The Committee is required to formally approve the Accounts before they are submitted to the Charity Commission.

2. ACCOUNTS 2017/18

- 2.1 Whilst the Trust continues to have a healthy level of assets overall the funds available for day to day operations are still at a low level, although they have improved slightly from the position reported in 2016/17.
  - 2.2 Total assets of the Trust currently stand at £24,979, with the bank account balance now at £1,751. As a minimum the Trust needs to generate sufficient income to meet the annual service charge payment to the Council. There was no expenditure during the year, and income was slightly down compared to the previous year. Due to the low level of available resources the service charge payment to the Museum was not made from the bank account in 2017/18 but a payment was made of £1,273 from the donation box collection.

3. INVESTMENT PERFORMANCE

- 3.1 Members requested an annual update on the performance of the Trust's investment, following the report on investments at the meeting in July 2017.
  - 3.2 The investment is managed by Northern Trust, and is invested in the CGWM (Canaccord Genuity Wealth Management) Select Bond Fund. As outlined in the previous report to the Committee whilst this is not a specific charitable investment fund it does seek to cap the volatility of the value of the investment at 6% annually. In that respect it is considered to be a suitable investment as maintaining the value and security of the investment is the main aim of the fund.
  - 3.3 The value of the investment at 31st March 2018 was £23,288, which was a slight decrease on the value of £23,813 at 31st March 2017.
  - 3.4 Annual investment income for 2017/18 was £760, which was a small increase on the 2016/17 figure of £727.

4. PREFERRED OPTION AND REASONS FOR RECOMMENDATIONS

- 4.1 It is recommended that the Committee approves the Accounts.

5. NEXT STEPS: COMMUNICATION AND IMPLEMENTATION OF THE DECISION

5.1 The Accounts will be formally submitted to the Charity Commission.

Executive Summary

This report covers the activity during the calendar year 2018.

This year has shown what might be termed the “World War One effect”, with almost 700 school-children taking part in QORWKR-based sessions and almost three times the usual number of collections enquiries.

The collection has been developed with the addition of new donations, especially those of the Morley-Jacob family. Sessions such as Café Culture with older people at risk of exclusion, have increased access to the collection.

Once again, volunteer Steve Finnis has been integral to the work carried out on behalf of QORWKRT.

This report makes the following recommendations to this Committee:

1. That the annual report is noted.

Timetable

Meeting	Date
QOWKRMT	22/01/2019

1. INTRODUCTION AND BACKGROUND

This report provides the annual report on work of Maidstone Museums in the provision of services to the QOWKR Museum.

1.1 Learning

Several workshops based on WW1 and WW2 related to artefacts and history of the QORWK regiment throughout 2018. We have also run another Arts Award for a school, based on WW1 and the 'Arrival ....' Painting by Frank Hyde.

In total 680 school children have engaged specifically with the collection and gallery in formal learning activities since January 2018:

- 30 children for WWI workshops
- 30 children for WWI Arts Awards,
- 220 children for the WWII workshop.
- 400 for Green Spaces Natural Faces Arts Awards

Every child who comes to do a workshop at the museum has time to explore the museum and they all look around the QORWK museum. It provokes a lot of questions and discussions amongst the children. Over 2018, 6000 children took part in our workshops.

1.2 Publicity

There has been increased social media from the museum in 2018 relating to the QORWK, including posts and blogs regarding the QORWK involvement in WW1, in the final centenary year. Also, posts relating to the Sikh Colours (rare flags from the Sikh Wars), in the collection, with a visit from a member of the Sikh Museums Initiative. Furthermore, the continued loan of the Keys of Jerusalem to the Tower of David Museum in Jerusalem for a temporary exhibition, has gained publicity. This has created interest amongst regimental and religious groups, and is publicizing the collection internationally. The most recent post regarding QORWK on Facebook/Twitter/Instagram linked to a blog on the museum website, introducing the regiment's role in WW1 on the Western Front and elsewhere: <https://museum.maidstone.gov.uk/lest-we-forget/>

1.3 Acquisitions

During the period Jan 1 – Dec 31st 2018, 73 items have been accessioned and added to the QORWK collection, please see list below. Please note, some distinct 'collections' were acquired relating to members of the regiment, creating contextualising archives relating to those individuals. No items have been bought for the collection, all items are by donation.

Maidstone Museums' Collections Development Panel, has continued to receive a high number of offered donations this year, including QORWK items, and with representatives from across the museums departments meeting quarterly to assess and decide on items offered for donation, a more strategic and sustainable approach is being undertaken to acquisitions. As such a number of items offered to the QORWK were not accepted, primarily because they are already duplicated within the collection or did not fit the collecting policy.

1.4 Gallery & Exhibitions

No major redisplay work has been undertaken in the permanent gallery in 2018. A number of the medal drawers have developed faults over time, which were fixed in 2017 but recurred in 2018. As such the new Maintenance Volunteer has since undertaken a more secure fix to ensure the security of artefacts and safety of visitors.

1.5 Activities

The popular Café Culture sessions continue with the informal group, meeting once a month (for over 65s) and has yearly QORWK talks/discussions and object handling, as well as covering collections across Maidstone's Museums. It demonstrates the health and wellbeing impact of museums on socially isolated older people, and is facilitated by staff and volunteers from the Collections and Learning Teams.

A new series of events named 'What's in Store?', are scheduled to begin in January 2019, with monthly tours behind the scenes, bookable in advance for the public. These will include highlights across the museums stored collections, with information about the artefacts themselves, as well as the collectors, and the work the teams do in the stores. This will include QORWK artefacts, such as the Crimean jacket with evidence of a mortal wound – with the intention of asking visitors – whose stories do museums tell? Who decides how to censor history? This will enable us to engage visitors in decision making as part of the community focussed 'Transformation Plan'.

1.6 Documentation

Cataloguing of the collections continues, now moving to 2D items, following completion of 3D objects. Volunteer, Steve Finnis continues to work on the QORWK archive and large photographic collection. A number of pieces of transcription work have been undertaken. The information for the c. 15,000 audited records is in the process of being updated digitally by the Collections Manager on the existing access database and will be uploaded to Adlib (the new Collections Management System), with a target date of April 2019. This process will enable research and additional information to be added to increase our understanding of the collection, as well as making the items more usable and accessible going forward. This has been a long term project due to the size of the collection, but invaluable for the management of the collection.

1.7 Conservation/Collections Care

No new collections care issues have been raised in 2018 – this will be reviewed in line with display needs and budget following the completion of documentation, which included some condition comments.

The Sikh Museum initiative have expressed interest in assisting in fundraising for conservation, mounting and display of the Sikh Colours. Discussions are in progress, but are not identified as a priority as there is currently no display potential within the existing themes, and due to their very large size and limited display space. The committee will be updated with progress regarding this.

1.8 Enquiries

A large number of enquiries have been received this year (almost 3x that of the 2017-2018 period), possibly linked with the final year of WW1 Centenary commemorations.

Jan 1st 2018 – Dec 31st 2018: 317 QORWK enquiries received by contact form, email, phone, letter and in-person, of which 136 were processed as paid for/free (charity/collection search) and 181 were not processed, due to non-payment by enquirers.

1.9 Accreditation

The QORWK Museum’s Accreditation status was renewed (along with the other Maidstone Museum’s), ensuring that it meets best practice standards across the museum sector with 1700 museums in the UK participating in the scheme. The museum reapplies for the status every 3 years to confirm the professional reputation of the museum, which covers areas such as organisational health, managing collections, and users and their experiences. For more information regarding the scheme, see:

1.10 Staffing

In late 2018 the Visitor Services and Operations Manager post became vacant, with a new post holder due to start in January 2019.
