Following legal advice, I wish to change the wording of my recommendation so that delegated powers are given to the Head of Planning and Development:

Change recommendation to:

Subject to referral to The National Casework Unit and no new material planning issues being raised as a result of the publicity of this application as a departure from the provisions of the development plan (publicity period expires 26/2/16), the Head of Planning and Development be given delegated powers to grant planning permission subject to the following planning conditions:

[conditions as in the report]
